

Please read all the following conditions carefully. You will be bound by these conditions if we carry or store goods for you. Please note that:

- Our services are priced based on the exclusions and limitations set out in these conditions;
- To the extent permitted by law, we will not be liable for any loss of or damage to goods, unless the loss or damage was caused by our proven negligence or wilful misconduct;
- The conditions provide for various exclusions of liability and limits on our liability for loss of or damage to goods. These exclusions and limits are set out in clause 6 and provide that, to the extent permitted by law, our maximum liability to you if the goods are lost or damaged is $50,000;
- The general effect of these provisions is that, even if we have been negligent, you may not be able to recover the full value of any lost or damaged goods. If you want to negotiate for us to have a higher limit of liability with respect to your goods, you should contact us;
- Because of these considerations, we recommend that any goods are covered by an appropriate insurance policy taken out by you, or by the owner of the goods; and
- If we store goods for you, you must take out a policy of insurance over those goods (see clause 13).

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In these conditions:

Australian Port means an Australian seaport operation where shipping containers are delivered for shipping to other ports and discharged from ships for pickup by domestic freight carriers.

Authority includes any legal or administrative authority exercising any jurisdiction within an Australian state or territory.

Business Day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in Brisbane, Queensland.

Carriage means the whole of the operations and services undertaken by the Carrier or any person on behalf of the Carrier in respect of the Goods (whether gratuitously or not), including transporting, loading, unloading, packing, handling, unpacking and storage of the Goods, steam cleaning/washing services, quarantine services and the provision of any advice.

Carrier means Wemyss Transport Pty Ltd (A.C.N. 088 464 920) as trustee for the Wemyss Family Trust (ABN 60 448 861 762) trading under its own name or under any other business name.

Chain of Responsibility Law means the Heavy Vehicle National Law as enacted in any Australian state, the Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008 (WA) and the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 (WA) and any other Commonwealth, state or territory Law dealing with the obligations of parties involved in the transport of goods by road.

Consequential Loss means any indirect or consequential loss; loss of use; loss of product or production; delayed, postponed, interrupted or deferred production; inability to produce, deliver or process; loss of profit, revenue or anticipated revenue; loss of bargain, contract, expectation or opportunity; wasted expenditure; liquidated damages; punitive or exemplary damages; in each case arising from or in connection with the performance of the Carriage and whether or not foreseeable at the time of entering into any agreement incorporating these conditions.

Consignor means the person engaging the Carrier.

Container includes any container, trailer, wagon, transportable tank, pallet, flat rack or any other unit or device used to consolidate Goods.

Crane includes any machine used for lifting Goods, including a forklift and a sideloader.

Damage means physical damage and includes deterioration, evaporation and contamination.

Dangerous Goods means Goods that are or may become noxious, dangerous, flammable or damaging or that may harbour or encourage vermin or other pests, or that are or may become liable to harm any property whatsoever.

Force Majeure Event means any event beyond the reasonable control of the Carrier including acts of God, lightning, earthquakes, cyclones, floods, landslides, storms, explosions, fires and any natural disaster, acts of war, acts of public enemies, terrorism, public disorder, riots, civil commotion, malicious damage, vandalism, sabotage, explosions, nuclear accidents, strikes, labour disputes and other industrial disturbances, any road closure or congestion of roads, any quarantine or customs restriction, epidemic or pandemic, cyber warfare, cyberattacks, ransomware attacks, cyber sabotage, any interruption of power supply or scarcity of fuel or any accident, collision or breakdown of a vehicle, Crane, machinery or equipment.

Goods means the property accepted by the Carrier from, or at the request of, the Consignor for Carriage and includes any Container, pallets or packaging supplied by or on behalf of the Consignor.

Interest means an amount calculated on any Outstanding Amount at the rate of 10% per annum, compounded annually.

Law means applicable statutes and any associated regulations, proclamations, rules, bylaws, requirements and approvals.

Outstanding Amount means any amount which remains unpaid upon the expiry of the credit terms extended by the Carrier or for which the Consignor is otherwise liable, pursuant to these conditions, to the Carrier.

Personnel in relation to a party, means the party's officers, officeholders, employees, agents and Subcontractors.

PPSA means the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth).

Subcontractor includes any person who pursuant to a contract or arrangement with any other person (whether or not the Carrier) performs or agrees to perform the Carriage or any part of it.

1.2 In these conditions:

- (a) a reference to a person is to be construed as a reference to an individual, body corporate, unincorporated association, partnership, joint venture or government body;
- (b) headings are included for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of these conditions;
- (c) words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing a gender include other genders;
- (d) where a word or phrase is defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or phrase have corresponding meanings;
- (e) wherever 'include' or any form of that word is used, it will be construed as if it were followed by '(without being limited to)'; and

- (f) all indemnities survive the termination or expiration of any agreement incorporating these conditions.

2. NEGATION OF LIABILITY AS A COMMON CARRIER

The Carrier is not a common carrier and will accept no liability as such. All Goods are carried and all Carriage is performed by the Carrier subject only to these conditions and the Carrier reserves the right to refuse the Carriage of goods for any person and the Carriage of any class of goods at its discretion.

3. CARRIER'S OBLIGATIONS

The Carrier will:

- (a) take reasonable care to protect and safeguard the Goods and to follow any special handling requirements notified to the Carrier by the Consignor;
- (b) provide the Carriage exercising the degree of skill, care and efficiency that would be expected from a competent provider of services of Carriage;
- (c) at its own expense, hold all licences as may be required by Law in connection with the Carriage;
- (d) where Goods are stored, account for all Goods received and use modes of storage appropriate for the nature of the Goods which may include storage outside, and not under cover;
- (e) where the Goods are chilled or frozen and in a refrigerated Container, and the Carrier agrees to store that Container at the Consignor's request, check the temperature set point nominated by the Consignor upon arrival of the Goods at the Carrier's facility and then check at least once each day, that the refrigerated Container is connected to an electrical power source;
- (f) use reasonable endeavours to deliver the Goods to the address nominated by the Consignor and to effect delivery at the date and time requested by the Consignor (subject to compliance with all Law, including Chain of Responsibility Law); and
- (g) use reasonable endeavours to comply with the Consignor's reasonable and lawful directions.

3.2 To the extent permitted by law, all conditions, guarantees, terms and warranties which would otherwise be imposed or implied into these conditions are excluded. Without limitation, this exclusion applies to any conditions, guarantees, terms or warranties of merchantability or of satisfactory quality applying to the Carriage.

4. OBLIGATIONS AND WARRANTIES

4.1 The Consignor must:

- (a) where the Goods require temperature control, provide written notice to the Carrier of the nature of the Goods and the appropriate temperature set point;
- (b) where the Goods are Dangerous Goods, provide written notice to the Carrier and otherwise comply with clause 17;
- (c) advise the Carrier of any Goods that must be held for biosecurity or underbond purposes;

- (d) ensure that the loading of the Goods onto the Carrier's vehicle will not cause the vehicle to exceed any dimension or mass limits under Chain of Responsibility Law;
- (e) where the Goods require special treatment or handling, provide written notice to the Carrier of the special treatment required;
- (f) if it makes a claim that Goods have been Damaged or destroyed while in the custody of the Carrier, on request, permit the Carrier to inspect those Goods; and
- (g) provide all documents, information and assistance necessary to allow the Carrier to comply with the requirements of any Authority.

4.2 The Consignor warrants that:

- (a) the Goods are fit for Carriage and are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of Carriage having regard to their nature;
- (b) the Goods within any Container are adequately restrained in accordance with the Load Restraint Guide published by the National Transport Commission;
- (c) if Goods within a Container are not evenly distributed, the Consignor will provide a load plan of the contents of the Container before requesting the Carrier to provide Carriage;
- (d) where Goods are to be transported or stored in a temperature-controlled Container:
 - (i) the Container has been properly pre-cooled or pre-heated, to the temperature required; and
 - (ii) the Goods have been properly stuffed/packed in the Container;
- (e) it is authorised by all persons owning or having any interest in the Goods to accept these conditions on their behalf;
- (f) all details supplied by the Consignor or any other party with respect to the Goods, including the details of description, items, pallet space, quantity, weight, volume, quality, value and measurements, are correct;
- (g) there is a suitable and safe road and approach for the Carrier and the Carrier's vehicles to the place from which the Goods are to be collected and the place to which the Goods are to be delivered;
- (h) safe and adequate loading facilities and equipment will be available at any place from which any Goods are to be collected and to which any Goods are to be delivered;
- (i) unless the Carrier is advised otherwise by the Consignor before Carriage, the Carriage is supplied for the purpose of a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on or engaged in by the Consignor and the consignee;
- (j) where required by Law, it has accurately completed and supplied a container weight declaration form; and
- (k) unless specifically declared in writing prior to Carriage, the Goods are not Dangerous Goods.

4.3 The Carrier relies on the details of description, items, pallet space, quantity, weight, quality, value and measurements supplied by the Consignor but does not admit their accuracy.

- 4.4 The Consignor acknowledges and agrees that these conditions set out the sole basis upon which the Carrier will provide Carriage to the Consignor. The supply or provision by the Consignor of any document setting out other, or alternative, terms will be of no legal effect and will not constitute a variation of these conditions or amount to a new contract or be part of these conditions.

5. SUBCONTRACTING

- 5.1 The Carrier, at its discretion, may subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the Carriage.
- 5.2 If the Carrier subcontracts any Carriage, the Carrier:
- (a) will not be relieved of any of its liabilities or obligations under any agreement incorporating these conditions; and
 - (b) will be liable to the Consignor for any act or omission of the Subcontractor as if such act or omission were the act or omission of the Carrier.
- 5.3 Every exemption, limitation, condition and liberty contained in these conditions and every right, exemption from liability, defence and immunity applicable to the Carrier or to which the Carrier is entitled under these conditions will also be available to and will extend to protect:
- (a) all Subcontractors;
 - (b) every employee or agent of the Carrier or of a Subcontractor; and
 - (c) all persons who are or are found to be vicariously liable for the acts or omissions of any person falling within clauses 5.3(a) or 5.3(b).
- 5.4 For the purposes of clause 5.3 the Carrier is or will be deemed to be acting as agent or trustee on behalf of and for the benefit of all such persons and all such persons will to this extent be, or be deemed to be, parties to any agreement incorporating these conditions.

6. LIABILITY OF CARRIER

- 6.1 To the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier will not, under any circumstances, be liable (whether in contract, tort, bailment or otherwise), for any:
- (a) loss of the Goods;
 - (b) Damage to the Goods; or
 - (c) misdelivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery of the Goods,
- whether in the course of Carriage or otherwise, unless the loss, Damage, misdelivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery was caused by the proven negligence of the Carrier.
- 6.2 Any liability of the Carrier under clause 6.1 will be reduced proportionately to represent the extent to which the Consignor or any other person's negligent or wrongful acts or omissions caused the loss, Damage, mis-delivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery of the Goods.
- 6.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions, to the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier will not be liable for any loss of or Damage to Goods:
- (a) caused by a Force Majeure Event;
 - (b) caused by the Carrier following the Consignor's instructions;

- (c) caused by the Goods becoming infected or contaminated with any virus, bacteria, fungi, pathogen, disease, mould, vermin or like condition;
- (d) caused by vibration, road conditions, weather or weather events of any kind whatsoever, including stone, rain, hail or storm Damage;
- (e) caused by the Goods being inherently defective or in such a condition that the Carriage cannot be performed without Damage;
- (f) caused by a decline in value, or loss of value as a result of the Goods becoming past their 'use by' or expiry date;
- (g) where such loss or damage comprises mechanical, electrical or electronic breakdown, derangement, or malfunction of the Goods;
- (h) caused by the inherent vice or the nature of the Goods; or
- (i) caused by insufficiency or unsuitability of packing or preparation of the Goods to withstand the ordinary incidents of Carriage.

6.4 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions, to the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier will not be liable for any loss or damage suffered in connection with any delay in the delivery or collection of Goods.

6.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions, to the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier will not be liable, under any circumstances, for Consequential Loss.

6.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions, to the extent permitted by Law, the maximum aggregate financial liability of the Carrier in relation to or in any way connected with any loss of Goods or Damage to Goods, or misdelivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery of Goods is limited to $50,000 for each incident. For the purposes of this subclause, 'incident' means any event which results in loss of, or Damage to Goods and all claims that result from the one original cause will be considered, for the purpose of this subclause, to have arisen from the same incident.

6.7 The limitation of liability set out in clause 6.6 does not apply to the extent that any loss of or Damage to Goods is caused by the Carrier engaging in malicious conduct, deliberate or wilful misconduct, fraud or criminal conduct.

7. SHIPPING CONTAINERS

7.1 If import Goods are being transported from an Australian Port, the Consignor must give the Carrier two Business Days' notice in writing that any shipping containers are empty and ready to be collected and returned.

7.2 If export Goods are being transported by the Carrier to an Australian Port, the Consignor:

- (a) must ensure that any shipping containers to be used are within the contractual free time period;
- (b) must provide the Carrier with a minimum of three Business Days' notice in writing of the required export pickup and delivery times;
- (c) authorises the Carrier to collect any empty export shipping containers for packing; and
- (d) must ensure any export shipping containers are delivered, packed and made available to the Carrier a minimum of three Business Days prior to the notified shipping line cut-off date.

8. ROUTE AND DEVIATION

- 8.1 The Consignor authorises any deviation from the usual route or manner of Carriage of Goods that may, in the opinion of the Carrier, acting reasonably, be considered desirable or necessary in the circumstances.
- 8.2 If the Consignor expressly or impliedly instructs the Carrier to use, or it is expressly or impliedly agreed that the Carrier will use a particular method of handling or storing the Goods, or a particular method of Carriage, the Carrier will give priority to that method but if it cannot conveniently be adopted by the Carrier, the Consignor authorises the Carrier, acting reasonably, to handle, store or carry or to have the Goods handled, stored or carried by another method or methods.

9. INSPECTION

- 9.1 If, under Law, a Container must be opened to allow the Goods to be inspected, the Carrier will not be liable for any loss, Damage or delay incurred as a result of any opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking and the Consignor agrees to pay the Carrier's charge for the cost of any such opening, unpacking, inspection or repacking.
- 9.2 If the Consignor makes a claim that Goods have been Damaged or destroyed while in the custody of the Carrier, the Consignor must, on request, permit the Carrier to inspect those Goods.

10. DELIVERY

- 10.1 The Carrier is authorised to deliver the Goods at the address nominated to the Carrier for that purpose. The Carrier will be deemed to have delivered the Goods if, at that address, it obtains from any person a receipt or signed delivery docket for the Goods.
- 10.2 If, without advance notice to the Carrier, the nominated place of delivery is unattended or if delivery cannot otherwise be effected by the Carrier or the consignee otherwise fails to take delivery of the Goods, the Carrier must contact the Consignor to obtain alternative instructions for delivery. The Carrier may make an additional charge for following the alternative instructions.
- 10.3 If the Carrier is unable to obtain alternative instructions, the Carrier may, at its option:
- (a) deposit the Goods at the nominated place of delivery (which will be conclusively presumed to be due delivery under these conditions); or
 - (b) store the Goods.
- 10.4 If the Goods are stored by the Carrier pursuant to clause 10.3:
- (a) the Consignor will pay or indemnify the Carrier for all costs and expenses incurred with respect to such storage; and
 - (b) the Carrier may, at any time, redeliver the Goods to the Consignor at the Consignor's expense.

11. CRANE SERVICES

- 11.1 Where the Carrier provides Crane services, the Consignor warrants that:
- (a) the road surfaces, access and egress to the site and the site itself are stable, adequate to support the Crane, clear of obstacles and of a gradient to allow the Crane to be operated safely;

- (b) sufficient clearance will be afforded in respect of all overhead wires;
- (c) it will provide accurate information about the weight of the Goods to be lifted in any one lift; and
- (d) the specifications and size of the Crane are suitable for the site.

11.2 The Carrier will supply a standard selection of slings, lugs and chains but accepts no responsibility for loss or delay if any slings, lugs or chains are found to be unsuitable for the Consignor's purpose.

12. STORAGE

12.1 Where Goods are stored by the Carrier at the request of the Consignor, the Consignor will provide:

- (a) an address to which notices will be sent;
- (b) samples of the signatures of persons entitled to collect the Goods; and
- (c) an inventory of the Goods to be stored.

12.2 Where Goods are being stored in a refrigerated Container, the Carrier's only obligations with respect to temperature control are the obligations set out in clause 3(e).

12.3 The Carrier may remove the Goods from a place of storage to another place of storage in the same city at its discretion. Goods may be stored in shipping containers outside and not under cover.

12.4 Storage charges do not include removing, packing, unpacking, inspecting, stowing, restoring or delivering.

12.5 The Consignor must give 48 hours' notice to the Carrier of its intention to remove Goods from storage.

12.6 The Carrier will not be obliged to allow an inspection of the Goods or to deliver up any Goods in storage:

- (a) to any person other than the Consignor or a person authorised in writing by the Consignor; or
- (b) in circumstances where any amount is due by the Consignor to the Carrier on any account whatsoever.

12.7 The Consignor will remove its Goods from storage within seven days of receipt of written notice from the Carrier.

12.8 If any identifying document or mark is lost, damaged, destroyed or defaced, to the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier may open any document, wrapping, package or other Container in which the Goods are placed or carried to inspect them either to determine their nature or condition or to determine their ownership.

13. INSURANCE

If the Carrier stores Goods pursuant to clause 12, the Consignor must:

- (a) effect and maintain an insurance policy in its own name that covers loss of or Damage to the Goods whilst the Carrier is storing those Goods and also covers any amounts due or that may become due under the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) or the Excise Act 1901 (Cth) (including finances or penalties) with that insurance policy to include a waiver of subrogation with respect to the Carrier; and

(b) provide a certificate of currency in respect of the policy referred to in clause 13(a), within seven days of receiving a request from the Carrier.

14. DEFAULT AND CONSEQUENCES OF DEFAULT

Without prejudice to any other remedies the Carrier may have, if at any time the Consignor is in material breach of any obligation under any agreement incorporating these conditions (including those relating to payment), the Carrier may suspend or terminate the supply of Carriage to the Consignor.

15. LIEN

- 15.1 The Goods are accepted subject to a general lien for all charges due or that may become due to the Carrier by the Consignor on any account whatsoever, whether in respect of the Goods or in respect of any other goods for which the Carrier provides or has provided services of Carriage.
- 15.2 Without prejudice to any other rights the Carrier may have under Law, if charges remain unpaid for more than fourteen days after they become due, or the Goods are not collected when required or designated, the Carrier may:
- (a) remove all or any of the Goods and store them as the Carrier, acting reasonably, thinks fit at the Consignor's risk and expense; or
 - (b) without notice and immediately in the case of perishable Goods, or otherwise on the provision of fourteen days' notice, open and sell all or any of the Goods as the Carrier thinks fit (whether by private treaty or public auction, including auction on an internet based platform) and apply the proceeds to discharge the lien and costs of sale and pay any balance to the Consignor.
- 15.3 The parties agree that the lien arising under these conditions:
- (a) attaches to the Goods when the Goods are accepted by the Carrier for Carriage; and
 - (b) is a security interest.
- 15.4 On request by the Carrier, the Consignor must promptly do anything for the purposes of ensuring that any security interest created under, or provided for by, these conditions is enforceable, perfected (including perfection by registration), maintained and is otherwise effective.
- 15.5 The parties agree that, to the extent permitted by the PPSA:
- (a) sections 95, 118, 121(4), 125, 130, 132(3)(d), 132(4), 135, 142 and 143 of the PPSA do not apply (unless the Consignor is otherwise notified in writing by the Carrier); and
 - (b) any right to receive a notice, statement or verification statement under sections 129, 130, 132, 134, 135 or 157 of the PPSA is waived.
- 15.6 Terms used in this clause have the same meaning as under the PPSA.

16. CARRIER'S CHARGES

- 16.1 The Consignor agrees to pay all sums due to the Carrier without any deduction, counterclaim or set-off.
- 16.2 The Carrier's charges are due within the credit terms agreed in writing between the Consignor and the Carrier. If the Carrier has not agreed to any credit terms, the charges are payable on delivery of the Goods. If the Consignor defaults in making any payment in accordance with these conditions, then all amounts owed to the Carrier will immediately become due and payable.
- 16.3 In addition to any other charges contemplated under these conditions, the Consignor is liable to pay:
- (a) Interest on any Outstanding Amount;
 - (b) all storage charges and any costs associated with loading or unloading Goods;
 - (c) any fuel levy imposed, which may be adjusted by the Carrier at any time on reasonable grounds to reflect fuel price movements; and
 - (d) all charges under Law including customs charges and excises in relation to the Carriage.
- 16.4 The Carrier may charge the Consignor, in accordance with its schedule of rates, in respect of any delay occurring other than from the default of the Carrier. Such permissible delay period will commence upon the Carrier reporting for loading or unloading. Labour to load or unload is the responsibility and expense of the Consignor or consignee.
- 16.5 If the Consignor instructs the Carrier that the Carrier's charges will be paid by the consignee or any other third party and the consignee or third party does not pay the Carrier's charges within seven days of the date of delivery or attempted delivery of the Goods, the Consignor must pay such charges.
- 16.6 Where the Carrier stores Goods for the Consignor, the Consignor must:
- (a) pay the Carrier's expenses and charges to comply with any Law or any order or requirement made under a Law, or with the requirement of any market, harbour, dock, railway, shipping, customs, excise or warehouse authority, or other person;
 - (b) if any Goods are under customs control, pay all customs duty, excise duty and costs (including any fine or penalty) that the Carrier becomes liable to pay or pays;
 - (c) supply or pay for labour or machinery, or both, to load or unload the Goods; and
 - (d) if the Goods are at any time re-quantified, re-weighed or re-measured, pay any proportional additional charges.
- 16.7 The Consignor authorises the Carrier, but the Carrier will not be obliged, to pay any duties, taxes, imposts, outlays or charges at any port or place in respect of the Goods and the Consignor will be liable to reimburse the amount of such disbursement to the Carrier.
- 16.8 The Consignor agrees to indemnify and keep indemnified the Carrier and any Personnel of the Carrier in respect of fines, penalties, duty, tax, demands, actions and proceedings suffered or incurred by, or made or instituted against them, or any of them, in relation to any duty owed with respect to any Goods (and any associated fines or penalties arising from non-payment of that duty) pursuant to the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) or the Excise Act 1901 (Cth).

17. DANGEROUS GOODS

- 17.1 If the Carrier agrees to accept Dangerous Goods for Carriage:
- (a) such Goods must be accompanied by a written declaration disclosing the nature of such Goods; and
 - (b) the Consignor must comply with all Law that deals with the Carriage of Dangerous Goods, including the Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods by Road & Rail.
- 17.2 If, in the opinion of the Carrier, acting reasonably, the Goods are or are liable to become of a dangerous or flammable or damaging nature and pose a threat of property damage or personal injury, the Goods may at any time be destroyed, disposed of, abandoned or rendered harmless without compensation to the Consignor and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to charge for the Carriage of the Goods.

18. FORCE MAJEURE EVENT

The Carrier will not be liable for any failure or delay in performance of the Carriage to the extent that such failure or delay is due to a Force Majeure Event.

19. NOTIFICATION OF CLAIM

- 19.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these conditions (other than clause 20), to the extent permitted by Law, the Carrier will be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless written notice of a claim or an intended claim (together with particulars of the circumstances on which the claim is based) is given to the Carrier:
- (a) in the case of Goods allegedly lost or Damaged in the course of loading, unloading or transit, within 14 days from the delivery of the Goods or from the date on which in the ordinary course of business, delivery would have been effected; or
 - (b) in the case of Goods allegedly lost or Damaged during storage, within 14 days of the date of removal or attempted removal of the Goods from storage.
- 19.2 The Consignor acknowledges that the purpose of clause 19.1 is to allow the Carrier an opportunity to promptly investigate the cause of any loss or Damage. Clause 19.1 will not apply if the Consignor has a reasonable excuse for its failure to give written notice.

20. APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

- 20.1 Notwithstanding anything contained in these conditions, the Carrier will continue to be subject to any terms, conditions, guarantees or warranties imposed or implied by the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) or any other Commonwealth or state legislation but only in so far as such legislation applies and prevents the exclusion or modification of any such term, condition, guarantee or warranty.
- 20.2 The Carrier, Consignor and consignee must comply with all Law, including Chain of Responsibility Law.
- 20.3 The Consignor must not impose any requirement on the Carrier that would directly or indirectly encourage or require the Carrier or any person on behalf of the Carrier to speed, drive while fatigued or otherwise perform the Carriage in an unsafe manner or in breach of Law.

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

- 21.1 The entire agreement between the parties is contained in these conditions and there are no other understandings, representations or agreements between the parties that are not set out in these conditions.
- 21.2 The Carrier will not be bound by any agreement purporting to vary these conditions unless such agreement is in writing and signed on behalf of the Carrier by an authorised officer of the Carrier.

22. GENERAL

- 22.1 This agreement will be construed in accordance with the law in force in Queensland and the parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland and courts entitled to hear appeals from those courts.
- 22.2 The failure of a party to take action to enforce its rights under any agreement incorporating these conditions or the granting of any time or indulgence will not be construed as a waiver of the provision nor as a waiver of the right of the party at a later time to enforce its rights under any agreement incorporating these conditions.
- 22.3 Where the Consignor comprises two or more persons, an agreement or obligation to be performed or observed by the Consignor binds those persons jointly and severally.
- 22.4 If any provision of these conditions is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision will, to the extent that it is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, be treated as severed from this agreement, without affecting the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions.
